

Endomorphogenesis simulations of mathematical models

Ralph Abraham

Mathematical models for morphogenesis have been evolving since the first reaction-diffusion equations of Fisher and others in the 1930's. Their computer simulations began in the 1970's. This is a review of the literature, with some recent results.