

Deep Space LIVE

Best of Linz in 3D

Thursday, February 23, 2012 / 8:30 PM / Ars Electronica Center

(Linz, February 22, 2012) The Archive of the City of Linz will present a nostalgic pictorial tour of Linz in 1900 at the next Deep Space LIVE event this coming Thursday, February 23, 2012. Never-before-exhibited stereographic 3D images make the Linz of yesteryear come alive. Motifs include buildings torn down long ago, popular outing destinations in bygone days, and impressions of how everyday life used to be in Linz. Serving as tour guide will be Walter Schuster, director of the Archive of the City of Linz. ATTENTION: Due to the many reservations we've already received, we'll be presenting two showings in succession. Tickets are still available only for the presentation at 8:30 PM.

Deep Space LIVE

The Ars Electronica Center is now hosting a Deep Space LIVE event every Thursday (except holidays) at 8 PM. Each presentation will feature ultra-high-definition imagery in 16x9-meter format and will be accompanied by expert commentary, entertaining stand-up repartee, and musical improvisation. Whether great works from the history of art, space travel, journeys of discovery in the Nanoworld, or a live concert is what you've come to behold, Deep Space LIVE stands for enlightening entertainment amidst breathtaking worlds of imagery. Admission is €2. Holders of a valid Museum ticket are admitted free of charge.
