

Deep Space LIVE: From Country Town to City of Steel

Thursday, November 29, 2012 / 8 PM / Ars Electronica Center

(Linz, November 26, 2012) High-definition photographs detailing the emergence of heavy industry in Linz occupy the focal point at the next Deep Space LIVE on Thursday, November 11, 2012. Manfred Carrington and Andreas Reiter from the Lentia-Verlag publishing house will relate the back story of the Hermann-Göring-Werke, the steel mill that went on to become voestalpine, go into the construction of workers' housing in Bindermichl, Spallerhof, Keferfeld, Froschberg and Kleinmünchen, and screen new images illustrating everyday life there.

Deep Space LIVE

The Ars Electronica Center is now hosting a Deep Space LIVE event every Thursday (except holidays) at 8 PM. Each presentation will feature ultra-high-definition imagery in 16x9-meter format and will be accompanied by expert commentary, entertaining stand-up repartee, and musical improvisation. Whether great works from the history of art, space travel, journeys of discovery in the Nanoworld, or a live concert is what you've come to behold, Deep Space LIVE stands for enlightening entertainment amidst breathtaking worlds of imagery. Admission is €2. Holders of a valid Museum ticket are admitted free of charge.
