

Deep Space LIVE

Computer Animation (Prix Selection) / Thursday, January 17, 2013 / 8 PM

Extended Animation / Thursday, January 24, 2013 / 8 PM

Ars Electronica Center Linz

(Linz, January 14, 2013) Breathtaking computer animation sequences are the featured attractions at the next Deep Space LIVE on Thursday, January 17, 2013. Christine Schöpf and Jürgen Hagler, both Prix Ars Electronica jurors, will screen a selection of works submitted for prize consideration to the 2012 Prix Ars Electronica's Computer Animation / Film / VFX category. On Thursday, January 24, 2013, Schöpf and Hagler will offer insights into what a motion graphics designer does, and present fascinating making-of shorts about works of computer animation in the Prix Ars Electronica pool.

By the way—you have until March 8th to submit your own entry to this year's Prix Ars Electronica. You can do your uploading at <http://prix.aec.at>. You also have the possibility of nominating interesting work by others at <http://prix.aec.at/nomination> or via Twitter. Additional info is online at <http://www.aec.at/prix/en/>.

Deep Space LIVE

The Ars Electronica Center is now hosting a Deep Space LIVE event every Thursday (except holidays) at 8 PM. Each presentation will feature ultra-high-definition imagery in 16x9-meter format and will be accompanied by expert commentary, entertaining stand-up repartee, and musical improvisation. Whether great works from the history of art, space travel, journeys of discovery in the Nanoworld, or a live concert is what you've come to behold, Deep Space LIVE stands for enlightening entertainment amidst breathtaking worlds of imagery. Admission is €2. Holders of a valid Museum ticket are admitted free of charge.
