

Terra Mater LIVE

Miracles of Life – Oasis in Space

Wednesday, May 8, 2013 / 8:15-9:15 PM / Ars Electronica Center Linz

(Linz, May 6, 2013) “Oasis in Space,” the next installment of Terra Mater’s Miracles of Life series will be shown on Wednesday, May 8, 2013 on Deep Space’s 16x9-meter screen. This spectacular film reveals how Earth morphed over billions of years from a truly inhospitable place to an oasis of life, and what conditions were necessary for this to occur. The final installment of Miracles of Life is set for Wednesday, May 15: “Key to Diversity” elaborates on the incredible heterogeneity of Earth’s fauna. Admission to Terra Mater LIVE is free of charge.
