Deep Space LIVE: Journey through space

THU, September 20, 2018 / 7 PM

(Linz, September 18, 2018) Thursday evening, September 20, astrophotographer Dietmar Hager invites visitors of Deep Space LIVE to a fascinating 3-D journey through space: Starting point is the International Space Station ISS, from where the exploration tour leads over the moon and various planets and galaxies to the edge of the universe. On our way back to Earth, we will also visit a number of exoplanets. Deep Space LIVE starts at 7 PM.

About Dietmar Hager

Dietmar Hager is a physician, astrophotographer and Fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society. He has worked in the field of astrophotography for over 20 years, and published his photos in international journals and textbooks. He has served as the Ars Electronica Center's astronomical advisor since early 2011.

Deep Space LIVE

The Ars Electronica Center hosts a Deep Space LIVE event every Thursday (except holidays) at 7 PM. Each presentation features ultra-high-definition imagery in 16x9-meter format and is accompanied by expert commentary, entertaining stand-up repartee, or musical improvisation. Whether great works from the history of art, space travel, journeys of discovery in the nano-world or a live concert is what you've come to behold, Deep Space LIVE stands for enlightening entertainment amidst breathtaking worlds of imagery. Holders of a valid Museum ticket are admitted free of charge.
